

Inaugural meeting to launch Corston Local History Group

“Historic Maps of Corston” from 1610 to today

An illustrated talk with wine and cheese*

Saturday October 14th
Village Hall
7:30 pm

Did you know?

- A canal was planned to go through the Playing Field
- An attempted murder changed the map of Corston
- Why the Avon towpath crossed the river at the Horse Ferry
- The first English geological map included Corston
- The evolution of your house and the land around it

Tickets £5 (includes annual membership) available from Diane Phillips or Martin Seymour, or call 01225 873516.

*For licensing reasons, please bring your own wine